

(46)

P.1169

We think of praying only when there is death; when there is dissatisfaction; and yet, we are always praying;
every word, every gesture utters a need; a desire.